4 DAY CALGARY STAMPEDE

From $1,495* pp twin share land only

3 night land tour including Grandstand tickets to the Rodeo.

The Calgary Stampede is an annual rodeo, exhibition and festival held every July in Calgary, Alberta. The ten-day event, billed as The Greatest Outdoor Show on Earth, attracts over one million visitors each year and features the world's largest rodeo, a parade, midway, stage shows, concerts, agricultural competitions, chuckwagon racing and First Nations exhibitions. Calgary takes on a party atmosphere during Stampede; residents don western wear and events are held across the city.

This tour can be booked independently or in conjunction with selected Scenic Tour itineraries. Please enquire for further details.
Price based on July 9 and 14 departures (Tour code CALS)

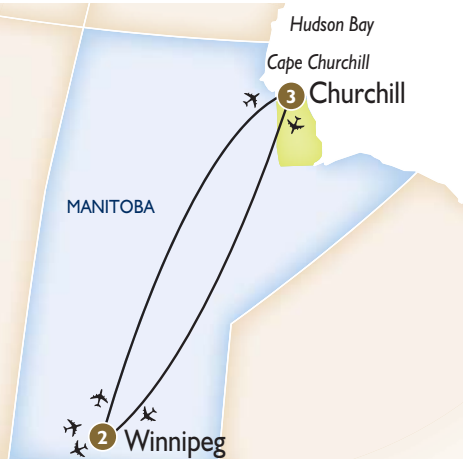

6 DAY CHURCHILL POLAR BEARS

From $5,695* pp twin share land only

5 night land tour

Churchill is the Polar Bear capital of the world. The rare opportunity awaits for you to watch these extraordinary creatures as they migrate annually to Churchill in search of food. View Polar Bears and other Arctic marine life in their natural environment on board your purpose built Tundra Buggy. Tours operate for a limited time each year to witness this unique migration and visitor numbers each year are controlled by the authorities in order to protect the bears. Keep a look out throughout your stay for the Aurora Borealis, known as the Northern Lights.

This extraordinary opportunity can be booked as an independent package or in conjunction with other Scenic Tours itineraries. Please enquire for further details.
